CARROLL, WARREN (Dr. Warren E.)
Newport Beach, California

Student at University of Colorado
Staff writer for The New Conservative, published by Conservative Club.
Writes column, Road to Freedom" from which article "Rebels of Hope," The Freeman, January, 1963, page 29 was taken.
An editor of Colorado Conservative, C. U. campus paper, has article on experiences there in June 18, 1963, Natl. Review. p. 494

Ph.D., History, Columbia U.
Assisted in preparation of 2-vol. survey, American Revolution, "The Spirit of Seventy-Six".
Has lectured in History, Indiana U.
Is also student of law, with commentaries appearing in American Bar Association Journal and Rocky Mountain Law Review.
Now writing "The Last Crossroads: the Historic Position of Western Civilization Today".
Edits a publication of his own and has contributed to The Freeman and National Review.
("America, The Last Crossroads" "a dramatic LP 33 record album of a coming book by Dr. Warren E. Carroll, Ph.D., Columbia University ——" can be ordered now from Stellar Records, Hollywood, California, $3 ea.)

(Free Enterprise, June 1966, p. 7) (Human Events, Aug. 6, 1966, p. 11)

Holds Ph.D. from Columbia, has contributed to major American journals including National Review, American Bar Association Journal. Edits his own publication, Freedom's Way, is author of many lifeline scripts for Radio broadcast. Ghost writer of conservatives. One of the founders and directors of Fact Records.

(Wants his Register study reprinted as a flyer for Fact Records)(F. Fact Records)

"Doctorate, History, Columbia. University lecturer. Edits the publication, FREEDOM'S WAY. Author of lifeline scripts. Author of articles in magazines such as National Review, Rocky Mountain Law Review. Past Assistant Cultural Historian, and for Fact Inc. Associate on two volumes SPIRIT OF '76, a study of the American Revolution." One of the "Voices" of Fact Records (Fact Records leaflet, 1968)(F. Fact Records)

Group Research